WINTER/SPRING 2025

ADULT PROGRAMS

Singing the Good Old Songs Again Jackie Davidson and Gary Brandt Thursday, February 13, at 6:30 PM

Classic and original songs and stories are featured from the Folk Era of the 1960's into the 70's. This show is loaded with lively audience interaction, participation, sing-along, and comedy.

Jackie was an original member of the Grammy award winning New Christy Minstrels, and Gary is a folk performer and published songwriter.

You will find this to be an entertaining, educational, humorous, fun, and memorable experience!

PaperGator Recycling Challenge Celebrate Earth Day by recycling! January - April 11

The library has the opportunity to earn exciting rewards by increasing our paper recycling volume. Plus the library will earn double the usual payouts during the contest period.

The library could win $5,000 (1st Prize), $2,000 (2nd Prize), $1,000 (3rd Prize), or double earnings for the entire year of 2025 (beyond the contest period). Winners will be selected based on the largest percentage increase in paper recycling. The winners will be announced on Earth Day 2025.

The PaperGator is located behind the library past the staff parking area. All paper products including old damaged books can be recycled (no cardboard or plastics accepted).

PAPERGATOR

KEEPING THE EARTH GREEN

An Ocean Without Sarah Steele

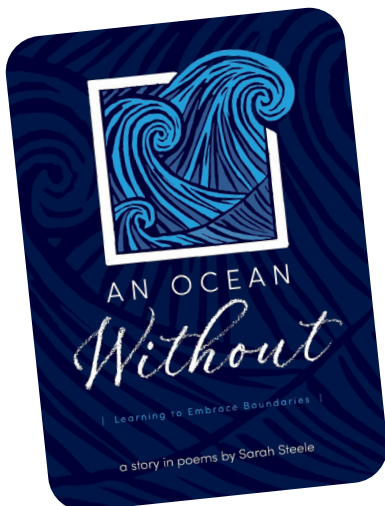

Thursday, March 6 at 6:30 PM

Sarah Steele is a dynamic artist and spoken word performer whose powerful voice and rhythmic delivery bring emotions and stories to life.

Her ability to weave complex ideas into relatable experiences comes through in her Amazon #1 Top New Release poetry memoir, An Ocean Without.

Walk with Sarah as she shares her story of losing herself in people-pleasing, battling the anxiety that came with setting boundaries for the first time in her life, and finally finding healing in faith and community.

Michigan Hidden Trails Ron Rademacher

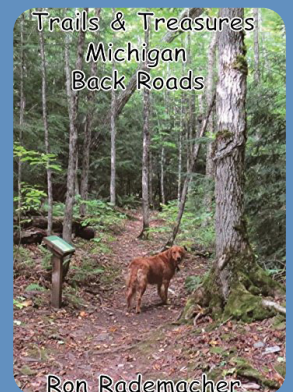

Thursday, March 20 at 6:30 PM

Discover a group of walking trails in Michigan that are low on difficulty but way up there on fun and history.

Most trails are gentle and family friendly, some are handicap accessible, and no special equipment is needed.

All of these trails have unique characteristics and are perfect for a wilderness walk with children or those who struggle with difficult trails.

This program is based roughly on his book, Trails & Treasures.

ADULT PROGRAMS

Creative Café Fused Glass Candle Holder Beth Tidd

Friday, April 4 from 1-3 PM

Saturday, April 5 from 10 AM-Noon
(A third class will be offered on Saturday from 1-3:00 PM if classes fill.)

Beth will teach you the art of fused glass. Fusing glass is fun and makes great gifts! Class size is limited to 25 participants (ADULTS ONLY).

The cost is $25 (non-refundable) and pre-registration is required. The cost covers the instruction of class, your finished product (including the candle), and refreshments.

Visit Beth's Facebook page at Beth's Glass Creations to see more of her creations.

The Healing Power of Handwork Carla Chase with CanDo Acres Thursday, April 24 6:30 PM

Using your hands in a creative way that allows you to give your mind a break, even if only briefly, can be beneficial in many ways.

In this presentation we will explore the science behind this concept through a little experiment and learn ways to incorporate these ideas more fully into our lives.

Local Author's Fair

Thursday, May 1 from 3:30-6:30 PM

The library is hosting an Author's Fair and you are invited to join the fun. Discover just how many local authors are in our community!

Authors will have a table and space to promote their work, sell books, and discuss writing with the community.

If you are a local author and are interested in joining the fair, please call or visit the library to reserve your spot.

The Otsego Art Competition 2025 Sponsored by the Otsego Arts Council Saturday, May 3 - Saturday, May 10

The Otsego Art Competition 2025 will take place in the library's large program room May 3-10. The public is welcome to view the art all week during open library hours.

Each person may vote for their favorite piece in both the adult and junior divisions. Voting will end Saturday, May 10 at Noon and the Awards Ceremony will take place immediately following from 1 - 2 PM.
